

FACILITY HOLDS FUNDRAISER

On Oct. 25 The Garden Court Endowment announced a fund to help low-income seniors in Santa Barbara. Their first fundraiser ever was held Nov. 11 at Hotel Andalucia, and consisted of individuals and corporations to support the cause.

Former Santa Barbara Mayor Harriet Miller was honored for her advocacy work for affordable housing and her outstanding contribution to the Santa Barbara community. The Garden Court on De la Vina currently provides affordable housing to 97 residents, many of whom are forced to live on a fixed income of less than $700 per month. For more information visit www.gardencourt.org.